CODE OF CONDUCT - DISTRICT SQUAD PLAYERS

1. Be committed to excellence and agreed goals and objectives of the squad.
2. Ensure that the best interests of the squad and Port Natal Bowls are served at all times.
3. Play in the position for which you are selected and give your full support to other members in their respective positions, as well as the Selectors.
4. Be available and punctual for ALL squad training and practice matches.
5. Be fully conversant with and observe the Laws of the Game.
6. Accept that the squad can only function successfully if disciplined and cohesive, in striving for the ultimate goal.
7. Always maintain a positive attitude, encourage squad members and accept all management decisions in a sportsmanlike fashion.
8. Do not communicate with the media unless the Executive Committee of Port Natal Bowls has granted prior permission.
9. Dress code for squad practices - players' club official kit will be worn.
10. The consequence of non-attendance at squad practices and/or withdrawal from a district side without a valid reason, acceptable to the Executive Committee of Port Natal Bowls, will be subject to Part 1 – Discipline of the District Disciplinary & Appeal Policy Procedures dated November 2020. This document is available to view on the Port Natal Bowls website (www.bowling.co.za) under About Port Natal Bowls, Policies & Procedures.
